Resources for Racial Justice

1/19/17

Our occasional e-newsletter, usually published once or twice a month, with links to events, articles, videos, websites, & more relating to racism & racial justice.

Martin Luther King And His Legacy

- Deciding To Lead With Love Despite An Enraging Political Climate, from Colorlines
- The Exploitation of Martin Luther King Jr's Legacy By White Supremacy, from The Establishment
- Which Martin Luther King Are We Celebrating Today? by Jason Sokol at the New York Times

Stand With Standing Rock

Kandi Mossett and Linda Black Elk, Water Protectors and organizers at Standing Rock, joined a gathering in Northampton MA a few days ago via Skype. Hear Kandi, Linda, and local organizers from Still Standing with Standing Rock in an interview on WHMP, Northampton.

Linda and Kandi gave us an update about the situation now at Standing Rock and made some suggestions for supporters, including:

- Pray!
- Follow the Indigenous Environmental Network
- Call the Army Corps of Engineers and demand that they issue an environmental impact statement that addresses the Dakota Access Pipeline's plans.

For accurate up-to-date info, see the Sacred Stone Camp's website

They suggest donations through these sites, which they know are reliable and support different aspects of their work:

- Indigenous Environmental Network
- Medic + Healer Council
- Water Protectors Legal Collective
- Help the Water Protectors build the Mni Wiconi Sustained Community, a new model, climate adaptive community that will be a sacred gathering place for generations to come.

Racial Justice Rising's activities:

Free monthly programs - please join us!

Free & open to the public at the First Congregational Church of Greenfield, 43 Silver Street, Greenfield MA 01301. Usually on the first Saturday of the month, usually from 10:15 a.m. - 12:15 p.m. .

The Evolving Face of Housing Discrimination, with Elizabeth Bridgewater
Saturday, February 4, 10:15 a.m. - 12:15 p.m.

At this free program, we will explore different expressions of housing discrimination in American history. What has it looked like over the years and what does it look like now? We will also talk about wealth generation and how discriminatory practices have shut many black families out of the most common intergenerational wealth transfer in the America and have small group discussions about our own experiences. Childcare by reservation. More information

Spoken Word, An Art With A History, with Tem Blessed

Saturday, March 4, 10:15 a.m. - 12:15 p.m.

A journey through the history of spoken word, using demonstration of the art as well as lecture. Other western MA area spoken word artists will also join us. The program is rated PG 13 for language and content. Childcare by reservation. More information to come.

The members of Racial Justice Rising are ordinary people who are troubled by the persistent racism that plagues this country. Believing that the damage caused by racism must be repaired before our society can be whole, we work for just and respectful treatment for all. We share a vision of a multi-racial, multi-cultural, multi-lingual, and multi-faith community.

Our mission is to:

- Help build the movement for racial justice by contributing to a deeper understanding of systemic racism and racial justice.
- Engage in restorative activities that help to heal the racial divide and bring justice for people targeted by racism.

While much of our work is focused in our local area, Franklin County, MA, we reach out to and are connected with the broader movements in our region and the nation.

Thank you, readers who send us information for these newsletters! We welcome links to articles, videos, event listings, and other resources.
