

19TH ANNUAL
Anti-Racism
Film Festival

Sunday, October 23, 2022

FREE ADMISSION!

We are proud to present this Film Festival at a time when conflict over race, religion, immigration, and personal privacy threaten to divide us. We offer this Festival in the hopes of creating a greater tolerance and collaboration as we build a community that is strong, healthy and respectful of differences. Facilitated discussions to follow films. In concern for Covid in our community, masks are recommended. Donations appreciated.

SCHEDULE:

 1:30 PM - Ta-Nehisi Coates - We Were Eight Years in Power: An American Tragedy (YouTube - 38 minutes)

A conversation with author Ta-Nehisi Coates and Marcus Campbell Ed.D. at Evanston Township H.S. on how the history of racism in America impacted the Obama presidency.

 2:10 PM - Danger of Silence. (YouTube) 4 min.
TedTalk with Clint Smith. On the importance of speaking up. By being silent, we allow ignorance and hate to take hold. Video is brief but powerful.

2:15 PM Discussion led by Carl McCargo

 3:00 PM - Thirst for Justice (2019)
1 hr. 10 min. Documentary written and directed by Leana Hosea. Powerful, award winning documentary offers a sobering look at how the ordinary citizens of the Navaho Nation, Standing Rock and Flint Michigan come together to battle industry and government over water rights, with water in Flint so toxic it could cause cancer and affect children's ability to learn.

4:00 PM Discussion led by Strong Oak

5:15 PM - Supper

A nourishing Vegan meal of local foods cooked by our favorite chef from Stone Soup Cafe, Kirsten Levitt, boxed for take out or to eat indoors. Sliding scale donation $4-$10. No one will be turned away.

6:00 PM - Descendant (2022)

1 hr. 45 min. Directed by Margaret Brown, Sundance award winning documentary follows members of Africatown as they share their personal stories and community history as descendants of the Clotilda, the last known slave ship carrying Africans to the U.S. Producers of this riveting, moving, intimate film include Essie Chambers, graduate of Greenfield H.S., Margaret Brown and Kyle Martin.

7:45-8:30 PM

Discussion led by Momodou Sarr
