

Following Through on Commitment #2
presents:

Conversations Toward Racial Healing

Join us for a Film and Discussion on

MIRRORS OF PRIVILEGE: MAKING WHITENESS VISIBLE

A documentary of white women and men who share their stories of how racism and privilege affected them personally and often painfully

Sat. June 29, 2013, 10:45 am to 1pm
St. James Episcopal Church, Greenfield, MA*
(Whiteman Room, Parish Hall)

BRING: Your courage; your inquiring mind; your compassion

Conversation led by Keely Malone, experienced trainer/facilitator and anti-racist activist

ADMISSION: By donation

TO REGISTER: email: workshops@massslaveryapology.org or call Annie at 413-774-2112

Registration deadline: Tues, June 25, 2013 (space is limited)

* *A Project of Mass Slavery Apology
www.massslaveryapology.org

(* Space is rented to groups that are not necessarily affiliated to St. James Episcopal church)