WHAT REPARATIONS FORCES US TO DO

Racial Justice & Un-Remembering Atrocity in U.S. History

A program with Chris Tinson, writer, activist, professor of Africana Studies at Hampshire College, member of Educators for Mumia Abu-Jamal, and co-founder of the TRGGR Media Collective.

Saturday, August 8, 2015, 11 a.m. to 1 p.m.
Doors open at 10:30 a.m.

First Congregational Church, 43 Silver Street, Greenfield MA 01301

In this interactive, participant-driven discussion, we will examine the debate around reparations and African Americans from the points of view of historians, artists, legal scholars, political scientists, grassroots community activists, and legislators.

Racial reparations remains one of our most explosive contemporary issues, and we will gauge its relevance in this era of the first Black president of the United States.

~ FREE ~ Donations Welcome

For childcare, RSVP with number & ages of children by August 1

For more information or to reserve childcare:
email@massslaveryapology.org or 413-625-2951

After the program, we'll have an opportunity to learn about ways to participate in racial justice actions in our area. If you want to share information about your project, email actionsupport@massslaveryapology.org

MANY THANKS TO THE FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH OF GREENFIELD

This program is supported in part by grants from the Amherst, Bernardston, Buckland, Deerfield, Gill, Leverett, Montague, Northfield, Orange, Shelburne, and Warwick Cultural Councils, local agencies which are supported by the Massachusetts Cultural Council, a state agency.

Our Vision & Mission

Mass Slavery Apology is a small racial justice group based in Franklin County, MA.

The members of Mass Slavery Apology are ordinary people who are troubled by the persistent racism that plagues this country. Believing that the damage caused by racism must be repaired before our society can be whole, we work for just and respectful treatment for all. We share a vision of a multi-racial, multi-cultural, multi-lingual, and multi-faith community.

Our mission is to work for racial justice and system change by:

- Bringing more people into the antiracism movement by reaching out, especially to white people, with resources that encourage a deeper understanding of systemic racism and racial justice.
- Using Mass Slavery Apology, our statement of apology for slavery, to build public acknowledgement of the legacy of slavery and public support for reparations.
- Addressing conditions of injustice in our own communities.

While much of our work is focused in our local area, we reach out to and are connected with the broader movements in our region and the nation.

Have you read our apology for slavery? Facing Our Unhealed Past starts with a look at how the slavery in our country's history led to the racial injustice that still devastates our communities today, and concludes with six commitments for restorative action.

If our words resonate with you, we invite people of European descent to join us by adding your signatures to the almost 400 we have received to date.

We are hoping to use this powerful statement to build a state-by-state trend to make meaningful apologies for the slavery at their roots – starting here in Massachusetts.

You don't have to be from MA to sign – we have signatures from all over the country – and beyond.

To add your signature, reply to this email with your name, city, state, and your country if you are outside the U.S.

Thank you, readers who send us information for these newsletters!

We welcome links to articles, videos, event listings, and other resources.

Because almost half of our 500+ readers are from other regions than our own, we'd love to list more events in other locales.
