Resources for Racial Justice

6/22/15

.....
Folks, it's been another hard week. The tragedies keep on coming.
I am grateful for the truth-tellers, the activists, the fighters for justice.
La Luta Continua...

Mass Slavery Apology's activities:

Join us in our work to undo racism!

Have you read Facing our Unhealed Past? Our apology for slavery starts with a look at how the slavery in our country's history led to the racial injustice that still devastates our communities today, and concludes with six commitments for restorative action.

If our words resonate with you, we invite people of European descent to join us by adding your signatures to the almost 400 we have received to date.

We are hoping to use this powerful statement to build a state-by-state trend to make meaningful apologies for the slavery at their roots – starting here in Massachusetts.

You don't have to be from MA to sign – we have signatures from all over the country – and beyond.

To add your signature, reply to this email with your name, city, state, and your country if you are outside the U.S.

To those who were at our June program – here is a link to Brother NorthStar's new website.

We will not have a program in July, and the Undoing Our Own Racism monthly discussion series is not meeting in June, July, or August.

Saturday, July 11th, Greenfield: Yard sale - Hey local folks, c'mon over! All sales will support our free monthly program series. There will be lots of great stuff – art, antiques, plants, jewelry. Special guest: N'zimah's body care products. And Adam Matlock's band will be there with live music! 8 a.m.-2 p.m. at 132 Federal Street, Greenfield. We're still taking donations of great stuff to sell~ email us at email@massslaveryapology.org to learn more or if you want to help out.

Saturday, August 1, Turners Falls: Pocumtuck Homelands Festival. This is a beautiful event organized by our friends at the Nolumbeka Project, with music, Indigenous food and handcrafts, true history, and more. We'll have a table with information & conversation.

Join us at our free monthly programs in Greenfield:

Free snacks and childcare. For more info: email@massslaveryapology.org or www.massslaveryapology.org

All programs are at the First Congregational Church of Greenfield, 43 Silver Street, Greenfield MA 01301. (A big thank you to the First Congregational Church of Greenfield for your support!) They are almost always on the first Saturday morning of the month.

No program in July...

- Saturday, August 8: A program on reparations for slavery with Dr. Chris Tinson of the TRGGR Media Collective & Hampshire College.
- Saturday, September 12: Youth Speak Out about their experiences in area schools, facilitated by Gloria Matlock.
- Saturday, October 3: A Program on Today's Prison System & connections with U.S. slavery, racism, & labor exploitation, with Mel Motel.

More info on all of these to come.

Mass Slavery Apology is a small racial justice group based in Franklin County, MA.

Our mission has two parts:

1) to provide resources for racial justice efforts and bring others into the antiracism/racial justice movement; and

2) to build public acknowledgement of the legacy of slavery and public support for reparations. Most of our current projects focus on sharing information with others, especially whites, about racism and white privilege.

We work actively in our local communities. Through this e-newsletter, our Facebook page, and our website, we also reach out nationally and internationally.

Thank you, readers who send us information for these newsletters!

We welcome links to articles, videos, event listings, and other resources.

Because almost half of our 500+ readers are from other regions than our own, we'd love to list more events in other locales.
